Clergy Support Fund Campaign: The Archbishop Peter Smith in support of the campaign writes:

Dear Brothers and Sisters, The priests of our diocese who are sick or no longer in active ministry need and deserve our care and assistance. As their numbers are set to increase, along with the costs of supporting them, I have identified their needs as a priority for the Diocese. Over the coming months I would like every parishioner to have an opportunity to learn more about how we must continue to sustain our priests in this new chapter in their lives. Please complete and return the card in order to hear more about how you can support them. † Peter Archbishop of Southwark.

Dr Peter Pierzchniak, a parishioner has very kindly agreed to promote the Campaign. He will talk at each Mass to explain further the object of the Campaign. Please lend an ear to this Campaign. We are one of the last parishes to promote the Campaign. Other parishes have done this with great success. The goal is to raise four and a half million pounds. It is a very challenging undertaking. Your support is very much appreciated.
